

CLAIM or CLAIMS

What I claim, as my invention is the use of wind that goes through air tunnels in the engine compartment that turns the wind turbines, which makes electricity. That then is to the motor of the automobile. This then turns the wheels.